Personally appeared before me W. N. Odom, and A. M. Lanterman and say that of their own personal Knowledge that Thomas Day did not occupy his preemption survey of 160 acres situated on the line of Hays & Blanca County Texas, for the term of three years, but that the said Thomas Day did abandon said survey before residing on it three years, and has not since set up any Claim to same whatever, And that A. Lanterman has had the same surveyed and is now and has for the past six years used and occupied and claimed the same as his homestead,
