

State of Illinois

Gallatin County

Oct. 16th 1822

This is to certify, that we the subscribers have been intimately acquainted with the bearer Isaac Jones Esq, for several years past, and do not hesitate to say, and do cheerfully recommend him to be a good and useful citizen of moral and temperate habits, strict to his integrity, a good mechanic, inflexible in justice and on the whole believe him in every way a serviceable, useful man and citizen in the country therefore, we the more cheerfully recommend him to the confidence of the Citizens of any Country or place where he may hereafter be disposed to locate himself.
