State of Texas
Galveston County

This is to certify that we the undersigned have been intimately acquainted with the bearer Isaac Jones Edg, for several years past, and do not hesitate to say, and do cheerfully recommend him to be a good and useful citizen of moral and temperate habits, strict to his integrity, a good workman, capable of justice and on the whole, believe him to be in every way a serviceable, useful man and suitable in every respect. Therefore, we the more cheerfully recommend him to the confidence of the citizens of any County in which he may thereafter be disposed to locate himself.
