Know all men by these presents, that whereas I, Marco A. Veramendi, of said county, did, on this 25th day of November instant, by Deed of Conveyance duly acknowledged before the Clerk of the County Court for said County and registered on the records of the same, grant, bargain, sell and release unto James Robinson, of the same county, all the right, title and interest that I had in and to Certificate number eighty five (85) issued to me as my headright claim by the Board of Land Commissioners for the county aforesaid on the first day of February, 1838, and calling for one third of a League of Land:

Now, therefore, be it known, that for the purpose of more fully enabling the said Robinson, his heirs or assigns, to procure the Patent for said lands in his or their own name or names, as my assignee, I do by these presents constitute and appoint the said James Robinson, his heirs and assigns, my true and lawful attorney or attornies, with full powers of substitution, to procure surveys and to apply for and receive the Government Patent or Patents, in his or their own name or names, as my assignee, or in my name, and for his or their own use, benefit and behoof, and to do all things in the premises which but for said assignment I might do in my proper person; and whatsoever the said Robinson, his heirs or assigns, or others by them appointed, may lawfully do in obtaining the Patent or Patents for the said third of a League of Land, as hereinbefore expressed, I the said Veramendi hereby forever ratify and fully confirm, and I also make this power of attorney perpetual and wholly irrevocable.

Witness my hand and seal at San Antonio, this 25th day of November, A.D. 1841.

In presence of
