Marshall, Texas, Nov. 17th 1857.

Mr. Crosby:

Dr. Sir:

On the 10th inst. I corrected the area of the Field Notes of a Survey made for the Heirs of Nancy Ann Haston on the 23d day of August, 1847, by David Hill, District Surveyor of Harrison District, purporting to be "640 acres." I corrected the Field Notes to 556 20/100 acres, the amount of land the bearings and distances called for.

Written across said Field Notes on the Record is the words "Removed by J. C. Moore
J. A. Hill,
C. C. H. Co."

I did not notice the words written across the Field Notes, until my attention was drawn to them this morning by a gentleman who claims the land described in said Field Notes.

Nov. 17th 1857. Respectfully, W. T. Spencer
C. C. H. Co.

S. Crosby,
Comr.

Dear Sir

You will please take notice that a certain Survey made in Harrison Co in the name of Nancy Ann Horton on or about 23 of August 1847 purporting to be 640 Acres, & recently returned is not in accordance with law & is in conflict with a Bona fide Claim & survey in the name of Jas. D. Moore which Survey is in accordance with law & is entitled to a patent from You. I therefore protest against You issuing a Patent on the Nancy Ann Horton Claim aforesaid.
