The State of Texas
County of Montgomery } I. H. R. Bell Chief Justice of Montgomery County do hereby Certify that C. B. Landers this day came and personally appeared before me and made oath and proves by the oaths of Lem G. Clopper and Joseph Mangum, that he has resided upon and cultivated the tract Land of Land surveyed for the said C B. Landers as a premption Claimant by Joseph M. Brown Depty. Surveyor of Montgomery Land District on the 26th day of March 1857.— for the space of three consecutive years and has publicly complied with the provisions of an act granting to actual settlers on public domain premption privileges, approved Febry 13th 1854.— The above facts having been proven to me by the oaths of Lem G. Clopper and Joseph Mangum two respectable witnesses to me well known— And I further certify that said C. B. Landers is a bona fide settler upon vacant Land and was a resident Citizen of the date of the act. of Febr. 13th 1854. and have never heretofore received any Land under said act—
