Dear Sir:-

Mr. Hunt advises that you desire a certificate as to the location of his 1.0398 acre survey with reference to the northeast corner of the John R. Harris.

This is to certify that the actual distance of the northeast corner (of the W.S. Hunt vacancy file No. 88 and containing 1.0398 acres) said north east corner being an iron pipe at the end of a bulk head where the north part of the Island joins the fill and old channel and from which the first call is North 32°38' W 147.5 feet to the northeast corner of the John R. Harris is South 34°58'30" East 2003.1 varas or 5564.2 feet.

To locate this line it was necessary to run a number of lines to get the course and distance between the two points and this is the calculated course and distance, the result of actual work on the ground.

Witness my hand at Houston, Texas this 7 day of February, 1924.

Honorable J. T. Robison,
Commissioner General Land Office,

Dear Sir:-

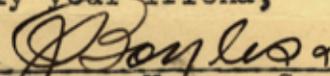

In sending up the field notes for the survey of the Hunt 1.0398 acres in order to get the situation clearly before you, I feel that some explanation should be made to show the basis upon which this application was filed and survey made on the ground.

During the period of the relocation of the Houston Ship Channel the government engineers deemed it advisable in several instances to cut new channels, abandoning the old channel of Buffalo Bayou in order to keep the alignment of the ship channel as nearly straight as possible in order to facilitate its navigation.

In this particular instance at what was known as Constitution Bend, the government in straightening the channel left a small island off the south part of the John Brown Survey and which island was owned by Col. John T. Brady's estate. Since this channel has been cut bulkheads have been thrown up across each end of the old channel from the mainland to the "made" island and behind these bulkheads the waste from the excavation made in the past few years has been dumped and filled in, thereby making the area covered in these field notes solid ground, and as such, there being no title issued against the same, vacant land.

I trust that this explanation will facilitate you in passing on the merits of Mr. Hunt's survey.

Sincerely your friend,

Surveyor Harris County, Texas.
