Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 20th, 1933 regarding the Sam Lewis property in the western part of the Pillot Survey in this county.

In 1917 R. M. Huffington in behalf of R. M. Huffington and Company leased the Sam Lewis property for pasturage purposes. I was interested in R. M. Huffington and Company and promptly after said property was leased we built a fence around the C. Goodrich Survey and included that portion of the Lewis and F. This property lying west of the West Montgomery Road.

I am attaching hereto a sketch showing the property included within our fence.

I withdrew from the Huffington Company during the year 1918 and Mr. Huffington continued his lease thereafter for a time. After Huffington gave up the lease, other parties from time to time leased this property for pasturage purposes. Since I retired from Huffington and Company to my knowledge the fences on the Lewis property have been generally kept up.

It is my hope that this covers information you desire and if I can be of further service, please advise me.

Dear Sir:

In 1905 Mr Sam Lewis of Houston acquired title to the West end of what then appeared to be the Pillot survey in Harris county. It now appears that the larger part of this purchase may be a vacancy.

He is seeking to buy it under preference right, which may turn on the nature and extent of his occupancy.

My information is that in 1925 or 1926 you rented the area from him for grazing purposes, and that you used it in connection with the Goodrich and perhaps with other surveys in that vicinity.

Will you kindly give me such information as is in your possession regarding the use of the land by Mr Lewis, and particularly in reference to your lease from him? The extension of this favor will be greatly appreciated.

On June 19, 1933 you filed in this office field notes together with other papers, relating to a 158.57 acre survey in Harris county. These field notes have been endorsed as follows: "No vacancy; on SF 13399 and MA 27279 A C Stimson and MA 27263 Gordon M Cone; see draftsman's statement herein".

The draftsman's statement is that the C N Pillot (2-53), C Goodrich (B-24), J M Hooper (B-21) and Wm Hurd (B-25) surveys were all made within a few days of each other, by the same surveyor, using practically the same chain carriers, and that inasmuch as these surveys constitute a system of surveys and the field notes of one survey call for the other, they must be held to join, thus precluding the existence of any vacancy between these surveys. Dear Sir:

This department is contemplating taking final action on the file made by yourself covering supposed vacant lands in Harris county, lying immediately East of and adjoining the Goodrich and Hooper surveys in the Tomball area in Harris county.

Before doing this, corrected field notes will be required so that the field notes will conform to the law and regulations followed by the General Land Office. In preparing these corrected field notes, Mr Boyles, the surveyor, should call for the SE or beginning corner as in the previous notes; that is, they should recite that the is "the SW corner of the C N Pillot survey, when same is located by running S 89° 13' W 4650 varas from the SE corner of said Pillot survey".

The field notes should also include one-half the width of the road up near the NE portion of this tract, for the reason that the field notes, as they now stand, stop at the Western line or right-of-way. In coming South to the place of beginning, let the field notes recite only course and distance, eliminating all calls for either the A C Stinson survey or for the C N Pillot survey.

As soon as these field notes are received and can be reached, the matter will have my attention. Kindly mention SF 13411 when you write.
