Lambert Mims, Admr of B. F. Mims, Dec'd } Plaintiff } Mandamus vs.
Mose Phillips and James S. Gillett, Adjutant General } Defendants }

27th

And now at this day comes the plaintiff, Lambert Mims, Administrator of the Estate of B. F. Mims, Deceased, by his attorneys, And the said James S. Gillett, Adjutant General, having duly returned into Court certified copies of all the papers in his office as required by plaintiffs' petition; And it appearing to the Court that full and legal service had been perfected upon the said defendant, Mose Phillips, and that the requisites of the law concerning suits against non-residents, by publication, had been complied with, and the said Phillips appears not, but makes default; And the cause coming on to be heard, And a Jury of lawful and good men, to wit: James N. Riley, Martin James, George W. Glasscock, R. H. Page, L. H. Puckett, Thomas Woodward, N. McDonald, Patrick A. Monroe, William Ainsworth, James J. McLaurin, Charles Rifenstall, and John Stanley, being duly empannelled and sworn, And the pleadings, the Evidence, the Argument of Counsel, and the charge of the Court, all being heard, retired to consider of their verdict And returned into Court the following verdict, to wit: "We, the Jury, find for the plaintiff. G. W. Glasscock, Foreman." And thereupon it appearing to the Court that the allegations in plaintiffs' petition and Amended petition are true, It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that the patent heretofore issued from the General Land office for Six Hundred and Forty Acres of Land, surveyed by virtue of Bounty Warrant No. 267, issued by William G. Cook, Adjutant General, to Jacob De Cordova, as assigned to said B. F. Mims, Deceased, on the 8th day of May, 1847, said Patent on said Certificate being issued to said Mose Phillips, as assignee aforesaid, located on a tract of land in the said County of Travis, known as Survey No. 136, lying 20 miles west of the City of Austin, lying on the waters of Spring Creek. That the said Patent, as above described, be cancelled, and declared null and void. Now, It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that a writ of Mandamus do issue, commanding the said Gillett to issue to the said Lambert Mims, as Administrator, the said Duplicate Certificate, for Six Hundred and Forty Acres of Land, so prayed for in said Plaintiffs' petition. It is further ordered, that the Clerk do file the Statement of the facts in this cause, among the papers thereof. It is further Ordered, that the costs of this suit be paid by plaintiff, for which execution may issue, &c
