I, J. H. Tate, do solemnly swear that during the year of 1876 I had a talk with Major A. J. Hunter, who then owned what is known as the Hunter place on the Samuel Craft league in Hays County Texas, in which place E. M. House now owns an interest and which adjoins the place now owned by Wm Simon, and which is just North of the land which is claimed to be vacant and is now in controversy between Paul Sonnitz and E. M. House & Wm Simon; that in the said conversation said Hunter told me there was forty or fifty acres of vacant land adjoining his said place on the South, which would put it where the land now claimed to be vacant is situated; that he tried to get me to pre-empt the vacancy and told me he would sell me some of his land adjoining so that I would have enough to make me a good home; that the Hunter land adjoining this supposed vacant land was then unfenced but was afterwards fenced by said Hunter so as to include nearly all of the land that is now in the Hunter place on the supposed vacancy, which string of fence, being the Southern string of the Hunter enclosure, was moved out so as to include about two acres more of the supposed vacancy by said House after the death of said Hunter, this being done by House about five years ago.

I further swear that said E. M. House has never lived on the said Hunter place nor any portion thereof, nor upon any of said supposed vacant land

Witness my signature at San Marcos Texas this Jan 20th 1894.

J. H. Tate.

Sworn to and subscribed before me by J. H. Tate on this the 20th day of January, 1894.
