University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

Are you a student in UW-Stevens Point's College of Natural Resources who is interested in:

- Engaging with governmental and industry professionals,
- Gaining exposure to real world natural resource issues, and
- Expanding your knowledge on natural resource management careers?

If so, apply for a scholarship to attend the Western States Land Commissioners Association's 2018 Summer Conference in Duluth, Minnesota from July 8-12, 2018. The Western States Land Commissioners Association is offering up to five student scholarships of $1,350 each, which will cover conference registration, hotel, and $100 in incidental travel so that natural resource management students are able to attend the four day conference.

Minnesota and Wisconsin are jointly planning and hosting the conference for the 21 western member states responsible for managing public trust and school trust lands. In addition to the ability to interact with state natural resource management professionals, students will be able to engage with industry affiliates who represent the fields of forestry, oil and gas, commercial real estate, financial services and information technology. To learn more about the conference program, visit our website:
