

GENERAL LAND OFFICE ARCHIVES

RECOMMENDED FOOTNOTE AND BIBLIOGRAPHY FORMATS

MANUSCRIPT MATERIAL

In accordance with the recommendations of the National Archives, our documents should be cited in the following manner:

[Record Item], [File Unit], [Subgroup], [Record Group], [Repository].

The record item identifies the specific document (letter, report, photograph, map, etc.); the file unit records its location (box and file folder, jacket, or bound volume); the subgroup represents the collection; the record group denotes the archival unit, defined as a “major archival unit that comprises the records of a large organization;” and the repository locates the record at the specific building or agency where the file is located. In our case, the record group and repository remain constant: Archives and Records Program, Texas General Land Office, Austin, TX.
