SAN ANTONIO — On Saturday, Dec. 15th, the Alamo will host a joint wreath-laying ceremony with Wreaths Across America, in participation with National Wreaths Across America Day.

The Alamo is honored to take part in this national event, which will include more than 1,400 other ceremonies happening simultaneously across the U.S. The goal of National Wreaths Across America Day and Wreaths Across America is to honor the sacrifices of all service members throughout the year.

“The members of the Armed Forces wake up every morning and put on their uniform to serve and protect the rest of us,” said Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush. “They do this without question, hesitation or doubt. It is only fitting that we honor their courage and sacrifice, not only during the holiday season but each and every day. I urge our community to join together and help us honor our American heroes dedication to the United States of America at our Alamo ceremony.”

The ceremony will take place in the Cavalry Courtyard at 11:45 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 15th with opening remarks by Alamo CEO Douglass McDonald. At 12 p.m., the Wreaths Across America ceremony will be presented by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8397 Commander, Cris Vieyra Jr., and the Post 8397 membership.

We hope you join us as we honor our veterans on National Wreaths Across America Day.
