Austin — The Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB) and its marketing partners Proscalar and 1820 Productions have received national recognition for several of their digital marketing campaigns. Intended to raise awareness for the benefits available to eligible Texas Veterans, the VLB's digital advertisements won eight Platinum Awards and four Gold Awards from the AVA Digital Awards which recognizes creative excellence and the production of digital communication products.

"We are once again honored to be recognized for our commitment to implementing innovative and creative measures to reach out to a new generation of Texas Veterans," said VLB Chairman George P. Bush. "These awards are a continued testament to our promise to faithfully serve the men and women who served our nation by offering them the very best package of Veteran benefits in the country."

This announcement marks the second time this year that the VLB has been internationally recognized for its marketing efforts. In January, the VLB was awarded five MarCom awards for two of its marketing advertisements.

"Being able to showcase the benefits afforded to the men and women who have served our country is an honor," said Stephen Smith, Proscalar's Managing Partner. "We are grateful for our partnership with the VLB and look forward to continuing to help Veterans access the benefits they have so courageously earned."

The VLB's award-winning marketing products include:

- "Benefits and Dreams Campaign" a video highlighting the VLB's home loan program, which reached an audience of over 1.15 million—six Platinum Awards
- "Remembering D-Day" a short animation to promote the VLB's Voices of Veterans program which archives firsthand accounts of Texas Veterans' time in military service—one Platinum Award, one Gold Award
- "Where Honor Lives" a video promoting the VLB State Veteran Homes that reflects on the life and military experience of a Veteran resident—one Platinum Award

- “Old Glory” which ran close to Veterans Day and promotes Honor, Duty, and Sacrifice. This campaign was recognized for its unique audio and script—two Gold Awards
- “Who is the VLB” a video introducing the VLB and the programs they provide to the next generation warriors returning from recent service—one Gold Award

For more than 70 years, the VLB has had the honor to serve Veterans, Military Members and their families in Texas. The VLB was created by the Texas Legislature in 1946 to offer home loans for returning WWII Veterans. The mission of the VLB is to ensure that it offers the very best package of Veterans benefits in the country. The VLB strives to meet those goals every day.
